ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL No. 1121

DIGEST OF HB 1121 (Updated February 19, 2014 1:48 pm - DI 106)

Citations Affected: IC 4-2; IC 4-21.5; IC 4-22.

Synopsis: Administrative adjudication. Authorizes an agency to share an administrative law judge with another agency. Requires the inspector general to adopt a statewide code of judicial conduct for administrative law judges. Provides that an administrative law judge who is not the ultimate authority or a member of the ultimate authority must: (1) be an attorney; or (2) have served as an administrative law judge before January 1, 2014. Prohibits the ultimate authority from communicating with certain persons, including: (1) a party; (2) a person with an interest in the outcome; or (3) a person who presided at an earlier stage of the proceeding; concerning a matter pending before or adjudicated by an administrative law judge if there is a reasonable likelihood that the ultimate authority will be called upon to review or issue a final order with respect to the matter. Requires an agency to disclose certain information relating to administrative law judges employed by the agency. Specifies when a party has standing to obtain judicial review of an agency action. Requires that an agency's rulemaking docket must contain certain additional information.

Effective: Upon passage; July 1, 2014.

- 22 (9) Recommend legislation to the governor and general assembly
- 23 to strengthen public integrity laws, including the code of ethics
- 24 for state officers, employees, special state appointees, and persons
- 25 who have a business relationship with an agency, including
- 26 whether additional specific state officers, employees, or special
- 27 state appointees should be required to file a financial disclosure
- 28 statement under IC 4-2-6-8.
- 29 (10) Annually submit a report to the legislative council detailing
- 30 the inspector general's activities. The report must be in an
- 31 electronic format under IC 5-14-6.
- 32 (11) Prescribe and provide forms for statements required to be
- 33 filed under IC 4-2-6 or this chapter.
- 34 (12) Accept and file information that:
- 35 (A) is voluntarily supplied; and
- 36 (B) exceeds the requirements of this chapter.
- 37 (13) Inspect financial disclosure forms.
- 38 (14) Notify persons who fail to file forms required under IC 4-2-6
- 39 or this chapter.
- 40 (15) Develop a filing, a coding, and an indexing system required
- 41 by IC 4-2-6 and IC 35-44.1-1.
- 42 (16) Prepare interpretive and educational materials and programs.

(17) Adopt rules under IC 4-22-2 and section 9 of this chapter to implement a statewide code of judicial conduct for administrative law judges. The inspector general may adopt emergency rules in the manner provided under IC 4-22-2-37.1 to implement a statewide code of judicial conduct for administrative law judges.

SECTION 2. IC 4-2-7-9 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE AS A NEW SECTION TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE UPON PASSAGE]: Sec. 9. (a) The inspector general shall adopt rules under IC 4-22-2 establishing a statewide code of judicial conduct for administrative law judges. The statewide code of judicial conduct for administrative law judges must apply to every person acting as an administrative law judge for a state agency.

(b) The inspector general:

- (1) shall review 312 IAC 3-1-2.5 and 315 IAC 1-1-2 in adopting a statewide code of judicial conduct for administrative law judges; and
- (2) may base the statewide code of judicial conduct for administrative law judges on 312 IAC 3-1-2.5 and 315 IAC 1-1-2.

(c) A state agency may adopt rules under IC 4-22-2 to establish a supplemental code of judicial conduct for a person acting as an administrative law judge for that agency, if the supplemental code is at least as restrictive as the statewide code of judicial conduct for administrative law judges.

(d) The inspector general may adopt emergency rules in the manner provided under IC 4-22-2-37.1 to implement a statewide code of judicial conduct for administrative law judges.

SECTION 3. IC 4-21.5-3-8.5 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE AS A NEW SECTION TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2014]: Sec. 8.5. (a) An agency may share an administrative law judge with another agency:

- (1) to avoid bias, prejudice, interest in the outcome, or another conflict of interest;
- (2) if a party requests a change of administrative law judge;
- (3) to ease scheduling difficulties; or
- (4) for another good cause.

An agency may adopt rules under IC 4-22-2 to implement this subsection.

(b) To the extent practicable, an administrative law judge must have expertise in the area of law being adjudicated.

(c) An agency shall post on the agency's Internet web site the:

1           (1) name;
 2           (2) salary and other remuneration; and
 3           (3) relevant professional experience;
 4       of every person who serves as an administrative law judge for the 5       agency.

6       SECTION 4. IC 4-21.5-3-9 IS AMENDED TO READ AS 7       FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2014]: Sec. 9. (a) Except to the 8       extent that a statute other than this article limits an agency's discretion 9       to select an administrative law judge, the ultimate authority for an 10      agency may:

- 11           (1) act as an administrative law judge;
 12           (2) designate one (1) or more members of the ultimate authority 13           (if the ultimate authority is a panel of individuals) to act as an 14           administrative law judge; or 15           (3) designate one (1) or more: ~~other individuals~~
 16                   (A) attorneys licensed to practice law in Indiana; or 17                   (B) persons who served as administrative law judges for a 18                   state agency before January 1, 2014;

19           ~~not necessarily employees of the agency;~~ to act as an 20           administrative law judge.

21       A person designated under subdivision (3) is not required to be an
 22       employee of the agency. A designation under subdivision (2) or (3)
 23       may be made in advance of the commencement of any particular 24       proceeding for a generally described class of proceedings or may be 25       made for a particular proceeding. A general designation may provide 26       procedures for the assignment of designated individuals to particular 27       proceedings.

28       (b) An agency may not knowingly assign an individual to serve 29       alone or with others as an administrative law judge who is subject to 30       disqualification under this chapter.

31       (c) If the judge believes that the judge's impartiality might 32       reasonably be questioned, or believes that the judge's personal bias,
 33       prejudice, or knowledge of a disputed evidentiary fact might influence 34       the decision, an individual assigned to serve alone or with others as an 35       administrative law judge shall:

- 36           (1) withdraw as the administrative law judge; or 37           (2) inform the parties of the potential basis for disqualification, 38           place a brief statement of this basis on the record of the 39           proceeding, and allow the parties an opportunity to petition for 40           disqualification under subsection (d).

41       (d) Any party to a proceeding may petition for the disqualification
 42       of an individual serving alone or with others as an administrative law judge upon discovering facts establishing grounds for disqualification under this chapter. The administrative law judge assigned to the proceeding shall determine whether to grant the petition, stating facts and reasons for the determination. If the administrative law judge ruling on the disqualification issue is not the ultimate authority for the agency, the party petitioning for disqualification may petition the ultimate authority in writing for review of the ruling within ten (10) days after notice of the ruling is served. The ultimate authority shall conduct proceedings described by section 28 of this chapter to review the petition and affirm, modify, or dissolve the ruling within thirty (30) days after the petition is filed. A determination by the ultimate authority under this subsection is a final order subject to judicial review under IC 4-21.5-5.

(e) If a substitute is required for an administrative law judge who is disqualified or becomes unavailable for any other reason, the substitute must be appointed in accordance with subsection (a).

(f) Any action taken by a duly appointed substitute for a disqualified or unavailable administrative law judge is as effective as if taken by the latter.

(g) If there is a reasonable likelihood that the ultimate authority will be called upon to:

(1) review; or

(2) issue a final order with respect to;

a matter pending before or adjudicated by an administrative law judge, the provisions of section 11 of this chapter that apply to an administrative law judge or to a person communicating with an administrative law judge apply to a member of the ultimate authority and to a person communicating with a member of the ultimate authority.

SECTION 5. IC 4-21.5-3-24 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2014]: Sec. 24. (a) At any stage of a proceeding, if a party fails to:

(1) satisfy the requirements of section 7(a) of this chapter;

(2) file a responsive pleading required by statute or rule;

~~(2)~~ (3) attend or participate in a prehearing conference, hearing, or other stage of the proceeding; or

~~(3)~~ (4) take action on a matter for a period of sixty (60) days, if the party is responsible for taking the action;

the administrative law judge may serve upon all parties written notice of a proposed default or dismissal order, including a statement of the grounds.

(b) Within seven (7) days after service of a proposed default or dismissal order, the party against whom it was issued may file a written motion requesting that the proposed default order not be imposed and stating the grounds relied upon. During the time within which a party may file a written motion under this subsection, the administrative law judge may adjourn the proceedings or conduct them without the participation of the party against whom a proposed default order was issued, having due regard for the interest of justice and the orderly and prompt conduct of the proceedings.

(c) If the party has failed to file a written motion under subsection (b), the administrative law judge shall issue the default or dismissal order. If the party has filed a written motion under subsection (b), the administrative law judge may either enter the order or refuse to enter the order.

(d) After issuing a default order, the administrative law judge shall conduct any further proceedings necessary to complete the proceeding without the participation of the party in default and shall determine all issues in the adjudication, including those affecting the defaulting party. The administrative law judge may conduct proceedings in accordance with section 23 of this chapter to resolve any issue of fact.

SECTION 6. IC 4-21.5-5-3, AS AMENDED BY P.L.219-2007, SECTION 5, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2014]: Sec. 3. (a) The following have standing to obtain judicial review of an agency action:

(1) A person to whom the final agency action is specifically directed.

(2) A person who was a party to the ~~agency~~ proceedings of the ultimate authority that led to the final agency action, including the agency whose order was under review in the proceeding.

(3) A person eligible for standing under a law applicable to the final agency action.

(4) A person otherwise aggrieved or adversely affected by the final agency action.

(b) A person has standing under subsection (a)(4) only if:

(1) the final agency action has prejudiced or is likely to prejudice the interests of the person;

(2) the person:

(A) was eligible for an initial notice of an order or proceeding under this article, was not notified of the order or proceeding in substantial compliance with this article, and did not have actual notice of the order or proceeding before the last date in the proceeding that the person could object or otherwise intervene to contest the agency action; or

- 1 (B) was qualified to intervene to contest an agency action
 2 under IC 4-21.5-3-21(a), petitioned for intervention in the 3 proceeding, and was denied party status;
 4 (3) the person's asserted interests are among those that the agency
 5 was required to consider when it engaged in the agency action
 6 challenged; and
 7 (4) a judgment in favor of the person would substantially
 8 eliminate or redress the prejudice to the person caused or likely 9 to be caused by the final agency action.
- 10 SECTION 7. IC 4-22-2-22.5, AS ADDED BY P.L.152-2012,
 11 SECTION 6, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE
 12 JULY 1, 2014]: Sec. 22.5. (a) This section applies to a rule that an 13 agency intends to adopt under sections 24 through 36 of this chapter.
- 14 (b) As used in this section, "pending rulemaking action" means 15 any rulemaking action in which:
 16 (1) either:
 17 (A) a notice of intent has been published under section 23
 18 of this chapter; or
 19 (B) a rulemaking action has been commenced under 20 IC 13-14-9; and
 21 (2) the rule has not become effective under section 36 of this 22 chapter.
- 23 (c) Each agency shall maintain a current rulemaking docket that is 24 indexed.
- 25 (e) (d) A current rulemaking docket must list each pending
 26 rulemaking ~~proceeding~~ action. The docket must state or contain:
 27 (1) the subject matter of the proposed rule;
 28 (2) notices related to the proposed rule, or links to the Indiana
 29 Register where these notices may be viewed;
 30 (3) how comments may be made;
 31 (4) the time within which comments may be made;
 32 (5) where comments and the agency's written response to those 33 comments may be inspected;
 34 (6) ~~requests for a~~ the date, time, and place where a public
 35 hearing required under:
 36 (A) section 26 of this chapter; or
 37 (B) IC 13-14-9;
 38 will be held;
 39 (7) ~~appropriate information about a public hearing, if any,~~ 40 ~~including the names of the persons making the request;~~
 41 (8) (7) a description of relevant scientific and technical findings
 42 related to the proposed rule, if applicable; and

1           ~~(9)~~ (8) a reasonable estimate of the timetable for action,
2           updated periodically as circumstances change, if necessary.
3           ~~(d)~~ (e) The agency shall maintain the rulemaking docket on the 4           agency's Internet web site. The information must be in an open format
5           that can be easily searched and downloaded. Access to the docket shall,
6           to the extent feasible and permitted by law, provide an opportunity for 7           public comment on the pertinent parts of the rulemaking docket, 8           including relevant scientific and technical findings. Upon request, the 9           agency shall provide a written rulemaking docket.
10          SECTION 8. An emergency is declared for this act.

A general designation may provide procedures for the assignment of designated individuals to particular proceedings.

(b) An agency may not knowingly assign an individual to serve alone or with others as an administrative law judge who is subject to disqualification under this chapter.

(c) If the judge believes that the judge's impartiality might reasonably be questioned, or believes that the judge's personal bias, prejudice, or knowledge of a disputed evidentiary fact might influence the decision, an individual assigned to serve alone or with others as an administrative law judge shall:

(1) withdraw as the administrative law judge; or

(2) inform the parties of the potential basis for disqualification, place a brief statement of this basis on the record of the proceeding, and allow the parties an opportunity to petition for disqualification under subsection (d).

(d) Any party to a proceeding may petition for the disqualification of an individual serving alone or with others as an administrative law judge upon discovering facts establishing grounds for disqualification under this chapter. The administrative law judge assigned to the proceeding shall determine whether to grant the petition, stating facts and reasons for the determination. If the administrative law judge ruling on the disqualification issue is not the ultimate authority for the agency, the party petitioning for disqualification may petition the ultimate authority in writing for review of the ruling within ten (10) days after notice of the ruling is served. The ultimate authority shall conduct proceedings described by section 28 of this chapter to review the petition and affirm, modify, or dissolve the ruling within thirty (30) days after the petition is filed. A determination by the ultimate authority under this subsection is a final order subject to judicial review under IC 4-21.5-5.

(e) If a substitute is required for an administrative law judge who is disqualified or becomes unavailable for any other reason, the substitute must be appointed in accordance with subsection (a).

(f) Any action taken by a duly appointed substitute for a disqualified or unavailable administrative law judge is as effective as if taken by the latter.

(g) If there is a reasonable likelihood that the ultimate authority will be called upon to:

(1) review; or

(2) issue a final order with respect to;

a matter pending before or adjudicated by an administrative law judge, the provisions of section 11 of this chapter that apply to an administrative law judge or to a person communicating with an administrative law judge apply to a member of the ultimate authority and to a person communicating with a member of the ultimate authority."
